CEO'S LETTER

6 May 2011

Dear NZFSU shareholder,

UNCONDITIONAL FULL CASH TAKEOVER OFFER FOR NZFSU AT 70 CENTS PER SHARE

On 21 April 2011 Olam announced its intention to make a full cash takeover offer for all of the shares in NZ Farming Systems Uruguay Limited ("NZFSU" or "Company") that it does not already own, at a price of 70 cents per share ("Offer").

The objective of Olam's 2010 takeover offer was to achieve a shareholding of at least 50.1% in order to be able to make the operational changes that it believed were necessary. Olam achieved a final shareholding of 77.98%, with acceptances for over 20% of the Company's shares arriving in the last three days of the offer period. All major institutional shareholders, the then management company and a number of NZFSU directors at that time accepted Olam's 2010 takeover offer.

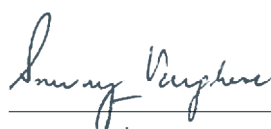

Since the close of the previous offer, Olam has worked with the independent directors of NZFSU to develop a new business plan, which has subsequently been approved by the NZFSU board. The new business plan involves significant changes in operational strategy, and forecasts substantially lower long term steady state earnings as compared to forecasts provided by NZFSU's board at the time of Olam's 2010 takeover offer. In Olam's view, the business plan outlined by the previous NZFSU Board was not realistic. It also requires a considerably higher level of capital investment than was previously expected. To assist NZFSU to meet its financial obligations in the short term Olam provided a US$50m loan to the Company. NZFSU announced in April 2011 that it intended to raise between US$110m and US$115m of new capital to fund the capital expenditure required by the new business plan and to repay the Olam shareholder loan.

Given the new information available about the business outlook for the Company, the low price pre-Offer and liquidity of NZFSU shares, and the larger capital requirements, the Offer gives remaining shareholders another opportunity to sell their shares at 70 cents before they are called upon to contribute additional capital approximately equal to or more than the value of their existing investment in NZFSU to avoid dilution.

The Offer is unconditional and shareholders wishing to accept the Offer will be paid within 5 days of receipt of their acceptance by Olam.

The enclosed Offer document sets out the details of the Offer, including relevant information you will need to take into account before making a decision in relation to the Offer. I commend this Offer to you, and encourage you to accept.

Yours faithfully

Sunny Verghese
Group Managing Director & CEO

WHY YOU SHOULD ACCEPT THIS OFFER

70 cents is a very attractive price compared with pre-Offer trading levels

This Offer gives shareholders the opportunity to exit at the same price offered in Olam's 2010 takeover offer. All major institutional shareholders, the then management company and a number of NZFSU directors at that time, accepted Olam's 2010 takeover offer.

The price payable for NZFSU shares under the Offer is a:

- 25.0% premium to the closing price of NZFSU shares on the last trading day on the NZSX prior to the announcement of Olam's intention to make this Offer;
- 25.3% premium to the three month volume weighted average price of NZFSU shares (prior to the announcement of Olam's intention to make this Offer); and
- 16.7% premium to the 6 month volume weighted average price of NZFSU shares (prior to the announcement of Olam's intention to make this Offer).

OFFER PREMIUM TO NZFSU'S HISTORICAL SHARE PRICE

Since the close of Olam's 2010 takeover offer, the NZFSU share price has fallen as much as 17 cents, to a low of 53 cents. This Offer represents a 32% premium to that price.

The Offer price is attractive having regard to the changed outlook for NZFSU's profitability and increased capital investment requirements

In Olam's view, the business plan outlined by the previous NZFSU board (prior to the successful completion of the 2010 takeover offer) was not realistic. Following the close of the 2010 takeover offer, Olam has completed a review of the Company's business plan and worked jointly with the independent directors to develop a new plan, which subsequently has been approved by the NZFSU board. A summary of the new business plan was released by the Company in February 2011.

The new business plan involves significant changes in operational strategy and also requires a considerably higher level of capital investment than was previously expected. The operational changes include a reduction in the planned development area and irrigation, and a significantly higher use of supplementary feed. Overall steady state production costs are now expected to be US23 cents per litre as compared to US15-16 cents announced previously. Accordingly, despite the increase in productivity due to the use of supplementary feed, NZFSU's associated operating costs are materially higher which leads to significantly lower steady state earnings.

In February 2011, NZFSU stated that "the updated plan will require a substantial improvement in the performance of all aspects of the business from current levels. While this financial performance is less than half the performance predicted in the previous business plan, it is considered realistic by the Board."

Given these significant adverse changes to the outlook for NZFSU compared to the information provided to shareholders at the time of the previous takeover offer, Olam believes that the chance to sell at the same price as was offered in the previous offer is extremely attractive for shareholders.

This Offer provides the opportunity for shareholders to sell before they are called upon to participate in the large capital raising required by NZFSU

At the time of Olam's 2010 takeover offer, NZFSU was capital constrained, was short of working capital, and had been forced to delay required capital expenditure. Since that time, Olam has provided financial stability to NZFSU through a US$50m shareholder loan facility (established promptly after the close of the 2010 takeover offer). The funds provided under this loan were urgently required for capital expenditure and to pay amounts owing to PGG Wrightson Limited.

Olam's loan to NZFSU is a short term solution to NZFSU's capital requirements. With NZFSU still in its development phase and yet to make a profit, debt is a less suitable source of financing than equity. NZFSU announced in April 2011 that it intended to raise between US$110m and US$115m (NZ$135m – NZ$142m) of new capital to fund the capital expenditure required by the new business plan and to repay the Olam shareholder loan. Shareholders are likely to be required to contribute an additional amount of capital that is approximately equal to or more than the value of their existing investment in NZFSU to avoid being diluted.

This Offer provides shareholders an opportunity to sell their NZFSU shares at a very attractive price prior to being called upon to participate in a rights issue or face the prospect of being diluted.

No dividends are likely in the foreseeable future

Given that NZFSU requires a significant amount of additional capital to fund the completion of NZFSU's development, repay Olam's shareholder loan, and meet ongoing operating expenses, the payment of dividends remains unlikely in the foreseeable future.

In Olam's view, whilst recent conditions may have a positive impact on the market prices for Uruguayan farmland and livestock, any such increases do not impact NZFSU's cashflows, nor the prospect of dividends.

NZFSU has previously announced that the new business plan is not expected to generate positive net profit after tax until the 2012/13 year.

This Offer is unconditional. Payment will be made within five days of Olam receiving a completed application form

This Offer provides accepting shareholders with the certainty of cash consideration. All accepting shareholders will be paid within five days of receipt of their completed Acceptance Form.

Unique chance to sell as trading in NZFSU is highly illiquid

NZFSU share trading is very illiquid. So far in 2011, NZFSU shares have traded on the NZSX on less than half of all trading days. The average daily value of NZFSU shares traded over the same period was less than $4,500.

This Offer provides a unique opportunity for existing shareholders to sell their NZFSU shares, and at a price well above recent pre-Offer trading, without depressing the market price.

Olam believes that, based on its expectations of the future profitability of NZFSU, this Offer represents an attractive opportunity for shareholders to realise an elevated price for their shareholdings, particularly for those shareholders who would not be prepared to fully support the significant capital raising NZFSU requires.

NZFSU's share price may fall significantly after the close of this offer

It is likely the NZFSU share price will fall after the close of this Offer, as the recent rise appears to be solely a response to the announcement of Olam's intention to make this Offer.

NZFSU CLOSING SHARE PRICE (LAST 18 MONTHS)

No brokerage is payable by accepting shareholders

Shareholders selling their NZFSU shares on the NZSX through a share broker may be charged brokerage. Accepting shareholders will not be charged brokerage under this Offer.

 - (b) the consideration which would otherwise have been paid to each Acceptor for their Shares shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to

- 6.2 If, on or after the Notice Date, NZFSU authorises, declares, or makes any issue of shares, convertible securities or other securities of any nature (including warrants, options, rights or interests in its ordinary shares), by way of bonus issue, then Acceptors will be bound to transfer, in respect of those Shares for which they have accepted this Offer, any such shares, convertible securities, other securities or options, rights and interests to Olam, without any additional consideration.
- 6.3 If, on or after the Notice Date, NZFSU makes any issue of ordinary shares to any person other than by way of bonus issue then this Offer will be deemed to be extended to and include such ordinary shares and the consideration payable for them will be as provided in paragraph 2.1.
- 6.4 If, on or after the Notice Date, all or any of the Shares are subdivided or consolidated by NZFSU then:
- (a) this Offer will be interpreted to take into account that subdivision or consolidation and will be deemed to be for the Shares resulting from that subdivision or consolidation;
 - (b) the consideration per Share offered under this Offer will be increased or reduced, as the case may require, in proportion to that subdivision or consolidation; and
 - (c) Acceptors will be bound to transfer those subdivided or consolidated Shares to Olam on the basis of the consideration so increased or reduced.

7. METHOD OF SETTLEMENT

If an Acceptor does not select a method of payment, or the details that are provided are not sufficient to effect an electronic transfer then that Acceptor will be paid by cheque. Acceptors electing payment by electronic transfer may be charged fees by their bank or financial institution.
- 7.2 If the consideration for the Offer is not sent within the period specified in paragraph 7.1 to any Acceptor, that Acceptor may withdraw acceptance of the Offer by notice in writing to Olam, but only after the expiration of 7 days' written notice to Olam of that Acceptor's intention to do so.
