Business prospects & outlook (slide 1 of 2)

Russia-Ukraine conflict

- ofi operates a dairy farming operation and an agri-farming operation to mainly grow the feed for our dairy herd in Russia. It also imports and distributes cocoa, coffee, dairy products and nuts into Russia. In Ukraine, it imports and distributes cocoa, dairy products and nuts. Olam Agri exports grains and oilseeds, including wheat, barley, corn and sunflower oil from both Russia and Ukraine. In Russia, it operates an export terminal in Azov. In Ukraine, it operates warehouses, silos and a grains elevator in Kyiv. The Remaining Olam Group does not have a presence in Ukraine or Russia.
- In 2021, our direct exposure to these two countries accounted for 1.0% of Group volumes, 0.8% of Group revenue and 2.7% of Group invested capital. However, the ramifications of this conflict has significant consequences for the broader grains & oilseeds markets beyond just Russia & Ukraine.
- One of the key objectives of Olam Group's Purpose is to strive for a more food secure future for all which has been severely impacted by this conflict as an estimated 400-500 million people are food dependent on this region. In line with our Purpose, we will focus only on those activities that are directly associated with our duty of care to our employees, our dairy herd, our farmer suppliers, and the customers we serve for essential food and basic nutrients.
- In Russia, ofi continues to supply milk from its dairy farm to its customers in the domestic market. We have ceased imports of other ofi products into Russia. For Olam Agri, there has been a severe disruption of the export of grains and oilseeds from both countries. With the closure of ports in the Azov Sea, we have stopped operating our export terminal in Azov.
- While the situation remains extremely fluid and the market risks and opportunities remain uncertain, we will continue to monitor the situation closely in Russia and comply with all applicable sanctions, laws, and regulations. We are actively managing our risks and exposures arising out of this conflict.
- In Ukraine, our first concern and overriding priority remains the safety, health and wellbeing of our people and their families. As all the ports have been shut down by the government, all our operations in the country, including imports, exports and grains elevator, have currently ceased operations.
- To support humanitarian efforts in the region, we are committing US$5 million to emergency aid initiatives with international partners, including the World Food Programme and UNICEF. We have also launched an employee giving drive, where all money raised will go directly to supporting UNICEF's critical work on the ground. Every US$1 donated by employees is matched by the Group to further provide assistance to those most in need.

Business prospects & outlook (slide 2 of 2)

- The growth momentum that we saw in Q4 2021 and the first two months of Q1 2022 has now given way to slowing growth, high inflation in most countries that we operate in, accompanied by hard pandemic lockdowns in China.
- Despite these developments, the Olam Group has had a good start to the year with Q1 2022 EBITDA growing 54% over last year.
- ofi has had a steady start in Q1 2022 and will deliver on plan and slightly ahead of last year with the business being well positioned to contend with the current macro economic conditions and geo-political uncertainties due to the Russia-Ukraine conflict. ofi is working closely with its customers to manage the inflationary pressures in input raw material prices and higher logistics costs.
- ofi intends to seek a primary listing in London, and a concurrent secondary listing in Singapore. However, in light of current market conditions as a result of the ongoing conflict in Ukraine, we do not currently expect the IPO of ofi to take place during Q2 2022, as previously planned. We remain committed to pursuing a public listing of the ofi business and will evaluate the appropriate timing of such a listing on an ongoing basis, taking into account prevailing market conditions.
- Olam Agri has more than doubled its EBITDA in Q1 2022 compared to the prior year with broad based performance from all of its platforms.
- The remaining part of the Olam Group performance in Q1 2022 has been marginally lower than Q1 2021.
- The sale of a substantial minority stake (35.4%) for US$1.24 billion to Saudi Agricultural & Livestock Investment Company (SALIC), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Public Investment Fund (PIF) of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia (KSA) and delivers four outcomes: (i) Illuminate and unlock value in Olam Agri, (ii) Crystallise a benchmark valuation and create a strong shareholder base ahead of a potential future IPO and demerger of Olam Agri; (iii) Right-size OG Group's capital structure and reduce its leverage and (iv) Capitalise on partnership synergies to support growth including access to new markets.
- Given the rising commodity price environment, we will continue to focus on operating and managing our working capital in a disciplined fashion.
- As the Group continues to execute the Re-organisation Plan, it is expected to continue to incur one-off and non-recurring expenses associated with the carve-out, listing and de-merger plans in 2022.
- Overall, given the strong start to the year and barring unforeseen circumstances, including adverse impacts of the Russia-Ukraine crisis on the markets, new Covid-19 variants of concern and consequent hard lockdowns across the world, we are cautiously optimistic about the economic outlook and prospects for the Group for 2022, with the industry continuing to see strong demand and tight commodity supplies amid supply chain disruptions.
